TERRY HAMMES APPOINTED TO BUSINESS ADVISORY COUNCIL

Washington D.C. - The National Republican Congressional Committee announced that Terry Hammes has been appointed to serve on the Business Advisory Council (BAC) in recognition of valuable contributions and dedication to the Republican Party.

Hammes will serve the state of Florida and is expected to play a crucial role in the Party's efforts to involve top business people in the process of government reform.

The Business Advisory Council is part of the National Republican Congressional Committee, and is dedicated to making sure that small business has a voice in Washington.

Hammes, who has long supported Republican ideals, particularly debt reduction and tax reform, will be a key member of the Council.
